MANUFACTORY OF SILVER WARE.

J. W. FORBES, No. 90 Broadway, one door above Wall-street, respectfully informs his friends and the public that he continues to manufacture silver tea and table setts, church plate, spoons, forks, ladles, waiters, urns, siphons, fish knives, &c. &c. of the latest and most elegant patterns, of the first quality of silver and superior workmanship, at the lowest prices for cash. All orders executed in a masterly manner, and warranted in all cases at least equal to any articles of silver manufactured and sold in this city.

In addition to his own manufactures, he has on hand an assortment of rich plated and fancy hard ware, which he will dispose of very low, consisting of candlesticks, cake baskets, castors, bottle castors, muffers and trays, plated on steel, a very superior article; elegant pen, pocket and sportsman's knives, with a variety of articles not enumerated. mch 30 1m

HATS.

JOSIAH WILSON informs his friends and the public, that he has removed his hat warehouse to 160 Broadway, between Maiden lane and Liberty-street, for the better accommodation of his retail customers; where he has constantly on hand, an extensive supply, from his manufactory, of Ladies' Beaver Hats, comprising every fashion and description of color, quality, and variety of pattern—the workmanship excellent, and adapted to this or any other market. He keeps on hand (which he receives regularly, once a week, from his factory) a constant supply of the first quality of Gentlemen's American Beaver Hats, manufactured under his own inspection, of durable and excellent materials, finished in the neatest and most fashionable style.

J. W. also has for sale at his warehouse, a large and regularly replenished assortment of gentlemen's fashionable London Beaver Hats, selected with great care, as to workmanship and quality. Likewise, American manufactured hats, of every description and kind, suitable to this or any other market. mch 30 2awtf

At a Court of Chancery, held for the state of New-York, at the Chancellor's Dwelling House, in the city of Albany, on the twenty-third day of March, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighteen.

Present—The Hon. James Kent, Esquire, Chancellor.

Philip Schuyler, Philip Jeremiah Schuyler, Rensselaer Schuyler, Stephen Van Rensselaer, Jr. Philip Church, Peter Cruger and Catherine his wife, John Church, Rudolph Bunner and Elizabeth his wife, Richard Church, an infant by the said Philip Church his next friend, Elizabeth Hamilton, Alexander Hamilton Morton, Philip Schuyler Morton, Cornelia L. Morton, & Regina Mary Morton, infants by the said Philip Jeremiah Schuyler their next friend and Catharine Van Rensselaer Malcome.

John R. Bleecker, Elizabeth Brinckerhoff, Morris S. Miller, and Maria his wife, Charles E. Dudley and Blandina his wife, Martha Bradstreet, Samuel Bradstreet, Thomas Morris, Thomas Biddle, John Wharton and William Hale and Catherine Van Rensselaer Schuyler his wife.

THE complainants above named having filed their bill in the above mentioned cause for the partition of the following parcel of land, that is to say a parallelogram in the counties of Oneida and Herkimer, in this state, on the south side of a patent granted on the second day of January, 1764, to Joseph Worrell and others, commonly called Cosby's Manor, lying along and upon the south boundary of the said patent as its base, being 26 chains and 59 links more or less in breadth, and the whole extent of the south line or boundary of the said patent, i. e. 483 chains more or less in length, and Philip Schuyler, one of the complainants, having made an affidavit annexed to the said bill of the truth of the allegations therein contained respecting the unknown owners of the said parallelogram. It is thereupon, on motion of Mr. J. V. Henry, of counsel for the complainant's ordered that all parties interested in the said parallelogram of land appear and answer the complainant's bill filed in the above cause, by the eleventh day of July next, to the end that in case of default, the complainant's bill may be decreed to be taken pro confesso against all such unknown parties as shall not appear and answer by the said day. And let a copy of this order be published for three calendar months, once at least in every week, in a newspaper printed in the city of New-York and in the city of Albany. A copy.
